

Providence Farm Wedding Packages 2019

Providence Farm, a 400-acre farm nestled at the base of Mount Tzouhalem, was purchased in 1864 by the Sisters of St. Ann, on which they developed a boarding school and orphanage. In 1979 they donated the farm to the Vancouver Island Providence Community Association which now operates Providence Farm as a working, therapeutic, organic farm serving adults and seniors with a variety of mental health challenges, developmental and intellectual disabilities and age-related illnesses. It is an organic farm where people care for the soil, and the soil nurtures the people.
