

Providence Farm is currently seeking applicants for the role of caretaker and applications for tenancy in the Red Barn house. The house is located near the rear of the property and consists of three bedrooms and 1.5 baths. The tenancy area also includes a rear year space. Applications must be made for both the caretaking position and tenancy at the same time. Please note the lease is limited to a one-year term. Rental rate is $1600 per month and includes basic hydro.

Please find attached photos of the house and a job description of the caretaker role. Applications should provide, in writing, a brief description of themselves including reasons why they feel they would be a good fit for this role. In addition both professional and rental references will be required.

Closing date for applications is Sunday May 20th at midnight. Please email applications to jobs@providence.bc.ca

